

We as Americans have every right to be able to block all unwanted calls to our homes. The New Jersey do not call list should not under any circumstances be changed. I have had telemarketer's get extremely rude to myself and my wife. Please do not cave into any type of compromise, keep this law as it is currently stated.